

TEN PHOTOGRAPHS
COLORED BY HAND
IN JAPAN

Shops and Trades of Japan

PUBLISHED BY
Knight & Millet
BOSTON, U. S. A.

PORTRABLE TOY SHOP.

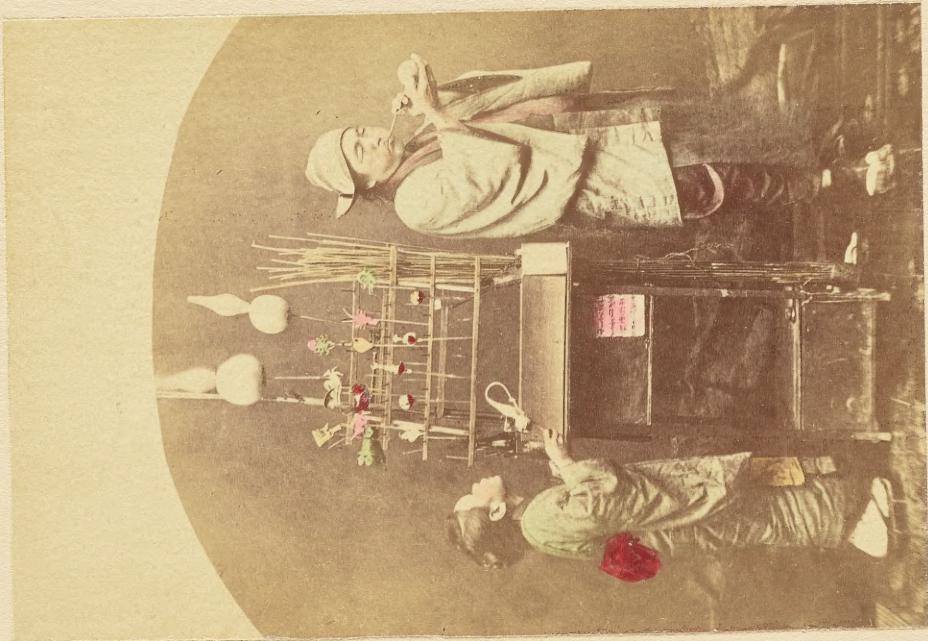

A PAPER STORE.

ITINERANT CANDY SELLER.

The confections made from a paste are blown like glass into various shapes and allowed to harden.

FAN SHOP.

CLOTHING SHOP.

FISHMONGER'S SHOP.

A TOY SHOP.

MAKER AND REPAIRER OF SAMISENS.

CARPENTERS AT WORK.

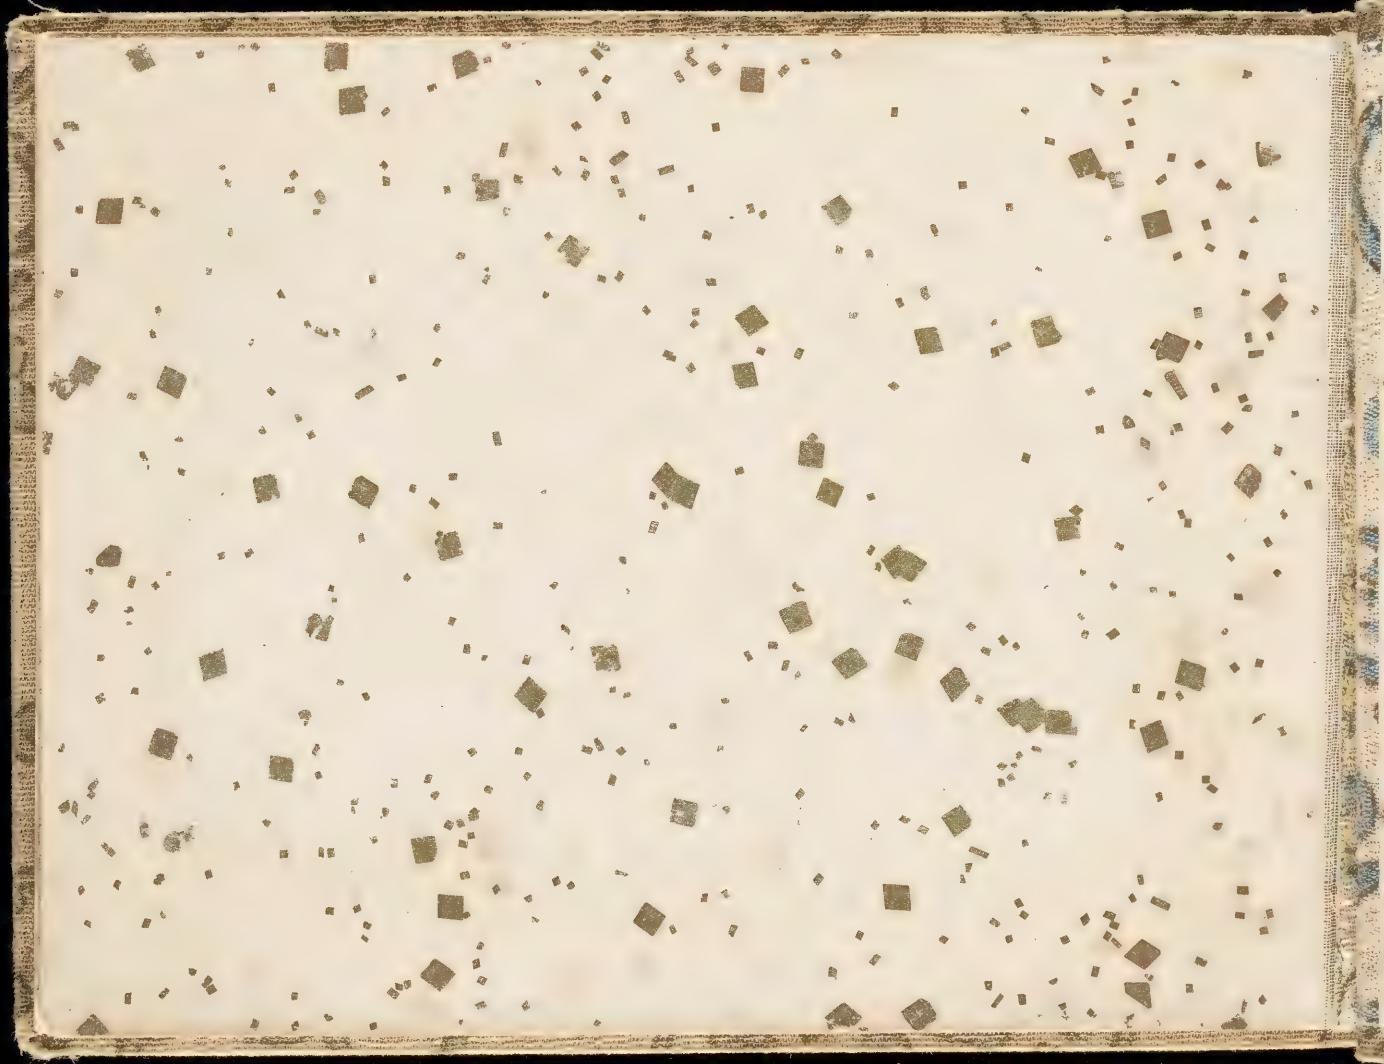

The saw is drawn upward as it cuts, and the plane drawn under pressure toward the workman.

CUTTING LEAF TOBACCO.

The diminutive pipes used by the natives are filled with tobacco cut very fine.

Japanese dry good store

[2021.8.7-s]

Special
94B
10163

[2021.R.7]
THE GETTY CENTER
LIBRARY

